

THE BULL & BUTCHER, 1277 HIGH ROAD, N20

Notes by John Heathfield
& David Berguer

It stood on the oldest recorded site in Whetstone.

1375

The first reference is on 3 October 1375 when the site was owned by the Heybourne family

1731

In 1731 it was shown as the Bull and Conjuror

1779

It first appears as The Bull & Butcher

1928

Benskins applies for planning permission for a new pub in July 1928

2007

The pub has undergone a makeover and is now 'The New Two Butchers Bar & Restaurant'

2008

A banner outside announces 'Re-Opening as Real Music Club'

2009

Is now 'i Bar'

2011

It is now 'The Stone Marquee'

2014

'The Sequoia' had its licence revoked by Barnet Council in April, after a long history of drink-related disorder